

CPA CPD Institutes at the Manitoba Psychiatric Association Annual Conference

June 7, 2021

1:00 – 4:30 p.m.

CPA CPD
INSTITUTE

1:00 – 2:00 p.m.

BILL C-7 and MAiD: What does it mean for psychiatry?

Grainne Neilson MD, MRCPsych, FRCPC
Staff Forensic Psychiatrist, East Coast Forensic Hospital
Assistant Professor, Department of Psychiatry
Dalhousie University

- Review legislative history of MAiD from Bill C-14 to Bill C-7
- Review the changes to current Criminal Code of Canada provisions related to MAiD (Bill C-7)
- Discuss the ethical and clinical practice issues related to the provision of MAiD for people whose sole underlying medical condition is a mental disorder

2:15 – 3:15 p.m.

COVID-19 and Psychiatry: What We Know and Where Do We Go?

Kathleen Sheehan, MD, DPhil, FRCPC
Clinician Investigator, Medical and Inpatient Psychiatry Programs and The Institute for Education Research
University Health Network
Assistant Professor, Department of Psychiatry
University of Toronto

- Recognize signs and symptoms of delirium during COVID
- Appreciate concept of post-acute sequelae of SARS-CoV-2 infection (PASC, aka “long COVID”)
- Apply current research knowledge about psychiatric impacts of COVID to practice

3:30 – 4:30 p.m.

The Virtual Therapeutic Relationship – Compassionate Care in a Digital World

Allison Crawford, MD, PhD, FRCPC
Associate Chief, Virtual Mental Health
Chief Medical Officer, Canada Suicide Prevention Service
Co-Chair ECHO Ontario Superhub and ECHO Ontario Mental Health
Clinician Scientist, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health
Humanities Lead, Department of Psychiatry
Associate Professor, University of Toronto

- Review the literature on the therapeutic relationship in virtual care
- Apply practical mitigation strategies to enhance the virtual therapeutic relationship
- Measure and improve the quality of the virtual therapeutic relationship